SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SAN MATEO	)	STANDING ORDER CALCULATION OF TERM OF IMPRISONMENT IN LIEU OF PAYMENT OF IMPOSED FINE AND PENALTY ASSESSMENTS

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING THEREFORE, that pursuant to California Penal Code §§ 1205 and 2900.5, a judicial officer may order, as part of a judgment imposed on defendant, that defendant is imprisoned until a monetary fine, including penalty assessments, is paid off at a conversion amount to be set by the judge and that the Court intends to have all of the judicial officers calculate the conversion in a uniform manner;

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

Any judicial officer who orders a defendant to be imprisoned in lieu of payment of a fine and applicable penalty assessments shall order the defendant to be imprisoned at the rate of 1 day for every $150 of the fine with any portion of a day, resulting from a remaining fine amount less than $150 from the calculation, rounded to the next full day. This formula for calculating the conversion from fine to imprisonment will become effective on April 2, 2007.
